

TRANSKRYPCJA NAGRAŃ

Zadanie 1.

Tekst 1.

- Boy:* Sally, your room looks like a mini-art gallery.
Girl: Thanks! Actually, my dad drew most of the pictures.
Boy: Is that you with that cute dog?
Girl: No, that's my sister. I'm in the picture over there.
Boy: Oh yes, with a book as usual. And who's that girl in the striped T-shirt in the picture over your bed?
Girl: My mother when she was sixteen. I drew it from an old photo of her.
Boy: Excellent! Did you draw any of the other pictures?
Girl: No, just that one.

Tekst 2.

- Girl:* Ben, where did you put the scissors? I need to cut this plastic tape.
Boy: In my desk drawer, I think.
Girl: No, they aren't there.
Boy: Check in the pencil case then.
Girl: I've already done that, but there are only some pens and pencils in there.
Boy: Maybe I threw them into the bin by accident when I was tidying up my desk?
Girl: Bingo. Here they are. Ben, you must be more careful!

Tekst 3.

- Girl:* Rick, what do we start with? Fruit or sandwiches? Mum gave us so much food! Oh but we don't have anything to drink!
Boy: No problem. I can go and buy some water here. But give me a moment, we've just sat down.
Girl: OK. The ticket inspector is nearly here. You can go after he checks our tickets.

Tekst 4.

- Man:* Our guest today is Alice Nixon. When she was a kid, Alice loved to draw animals. When she grew up she began to illustrate books. Later she also started to write because she needed stories for her pictures. Soon Alice's books became bestsellers. Her new idea is to direct an animated film based on her adventures in Australia.

Tekst 5.

- Woman:* Hello, I'm Jill White. I'm not trying to sell you anything. I'm calling from the city council. I only want to know what you think about our city parks. The interview will take a few minutes. The answers from people like you are very important to us. We are going to discuss them at a meeting of the City Planning Group next month. If you are busy right now, I can call you again later today.

Zadanie 2.

Wypowiedź 1.

Boy: Double Dare is a quiz show for pairs of students. To have a better chance of winning I chose my partner for the show carefully. Derek knows all about history and geography while I'm more into artistic subjects. At first, the questions were easy, but the last two were very hard. Anyway, we did well and we won a big cash prize for our school.

Wypowiedź 2.

Girl: When our teacher asked, "Who wants to join the school team in the game show All-rounders?" I raised my hand immediately. I'm very good at athletics and at remembering facts. We played against a team from another school in our city. First, we had ten questions on different topics and we answered all of them. Then, in a physical fitness competition, we came first in climbing and running.

Wypowiedź 3.

Boy: Quiz Kid looked easy when I watched it on television. I could answer all the questions. But it was different when I was in the studio. I sat opposite the presenter feeling very alone. I did quite well at first but when he asked me to name the longest river in Europe, I got really stressed and couldn't remember the answer. My game was over.

Wypowiedź 4.

Girl: I waited a long time for my turn to go into the studio. Finally, they asked me to come in and to stand in front of the cameras. It all felt so unreal. I just don't know how I answered all those questions. But I did and I won. The most difficult thing was that I couldn't tell anyone that I was the winner of the game before it was shown on TV!

Zadanie 3.

Presenter: And now our next caller, Judy, will share an amazing story.

Girl: Last autumn I was helping my Mum plant a tree in the garden when we found a strange object in the ground. It looked like a plastic box but when I picked it up I saw it was a wooden box. When I showed it to my sister Molly, she shouted "It's our time capsule!". I was only five when we put it into the ground, so I completely forgot about it. But my sister is older than me, so she remembered it well. We opened our time capsule and saw: my favourite book, Molly's ring with a gold star on it and – to my great surprise – a photo of my teddy bear! We had a good look at all those things, and we added a photo of the tree we were planting that day. We put the time capsule back into the ground and agreed to wait another seven years and open it again. I'll be twenty years old then.
